◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆ RECAP - JULY 4TH ◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆

This year's July 4th celebration was a great success. The parade, led by the Manoa Fire Company, circled the neighborhood ending up at the field to kick off a fun-filled day.

Once again we were fortunate to have John Candelori as lead planner and he did a fantastic job! Special thanks goes to Paul French (Just For Fun) for providing all of the rides and carnival games, Steve D'Emilio and Public Works. Thanks also to the many neighbors who were generous enough to donate their time to make this event happen: Peggy Candelori, Jim & MaryAnn Sharkey, Irv Finkelman, Jean & Gary Juisti, Brendan Kelly, AnnMarie & Dan McCarty, Brian & Kate McTiernan, Dave Gillespie.

Our Junior Civic Association Members came out in great numbers to help. Thanks to: Ashley Hushen, Amanda Juisti, Joanie MacDade, Jillian Mallon, Grace & Mary McCarty, Jackie Murray, Christina & Mary Sharkey, Natalie Skahan, Samantha Turner. Special thanks to Junior Civic President Michelle Supizio for coordinating the effort!

Congratulations to Paul French, winner of the 50/50 drawing!

In addition to all of our volunteers who help out, we depend on donations and financial support to help offset expenses. Thank you to the following people and organizations for their generosity.

- Paul French - Just For Fun - provided all rides and carnival games and donated moonbounce raffle
- Steve Kehler - Kehlert's Sunoco - cash donation
- Maureen Stewart - Century 21 - balloons
